MONDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 4

PRIDEMORE AND MCMULLIN MEET.-General Pridemore made a speech at Abiogdon on Monday last, which was enthusiastically received by the people. He was followed by Gov. Fayette McMullin, but the "noise and confusion" were so great at first as to prevent his being heard. The Bristol News says:

"It is proper to add that General Pridemore did all in his power to still the tempest and have his adversary accorded a respectful hearing and in this he succeeded. Governor Me-Muliin stated in his speech tout, if when he goes to Scott and L.c. on finds the people of these counties against turn, he will windraw and yield Gen. Protemore a hearty support. He had some friends in the House, but it was evident that General Pridemore had made fear ful inroads upon them, and the lew that remained true to him were few indeed.'
